Awareness

2024 Oil on canvas,

Interlocking figures and heart-shaped forms create a visual language of connection. Through continuous contour and modular colour, Stebule transforms connection into a shared emotional space.

My Family

2022 · Oil on canvas

Inspired by thoughts of family, connection and individual space, Stebule shapes intimacy through simplified forms and rhythmic colour. The composition turns closeness into a quiet meditation on belonging.

Quantum Jump

2025 Oil, acrylic on canvas

A luminous blue feline crosses a dreamlike field of floating forms and patterned planes. Drawing on Stebule's intuitive abstract-figurative language, the painting transforms movement into a bold meditation on multiplicity, imagination, and the unseen energies that connect the visible and the invisible.

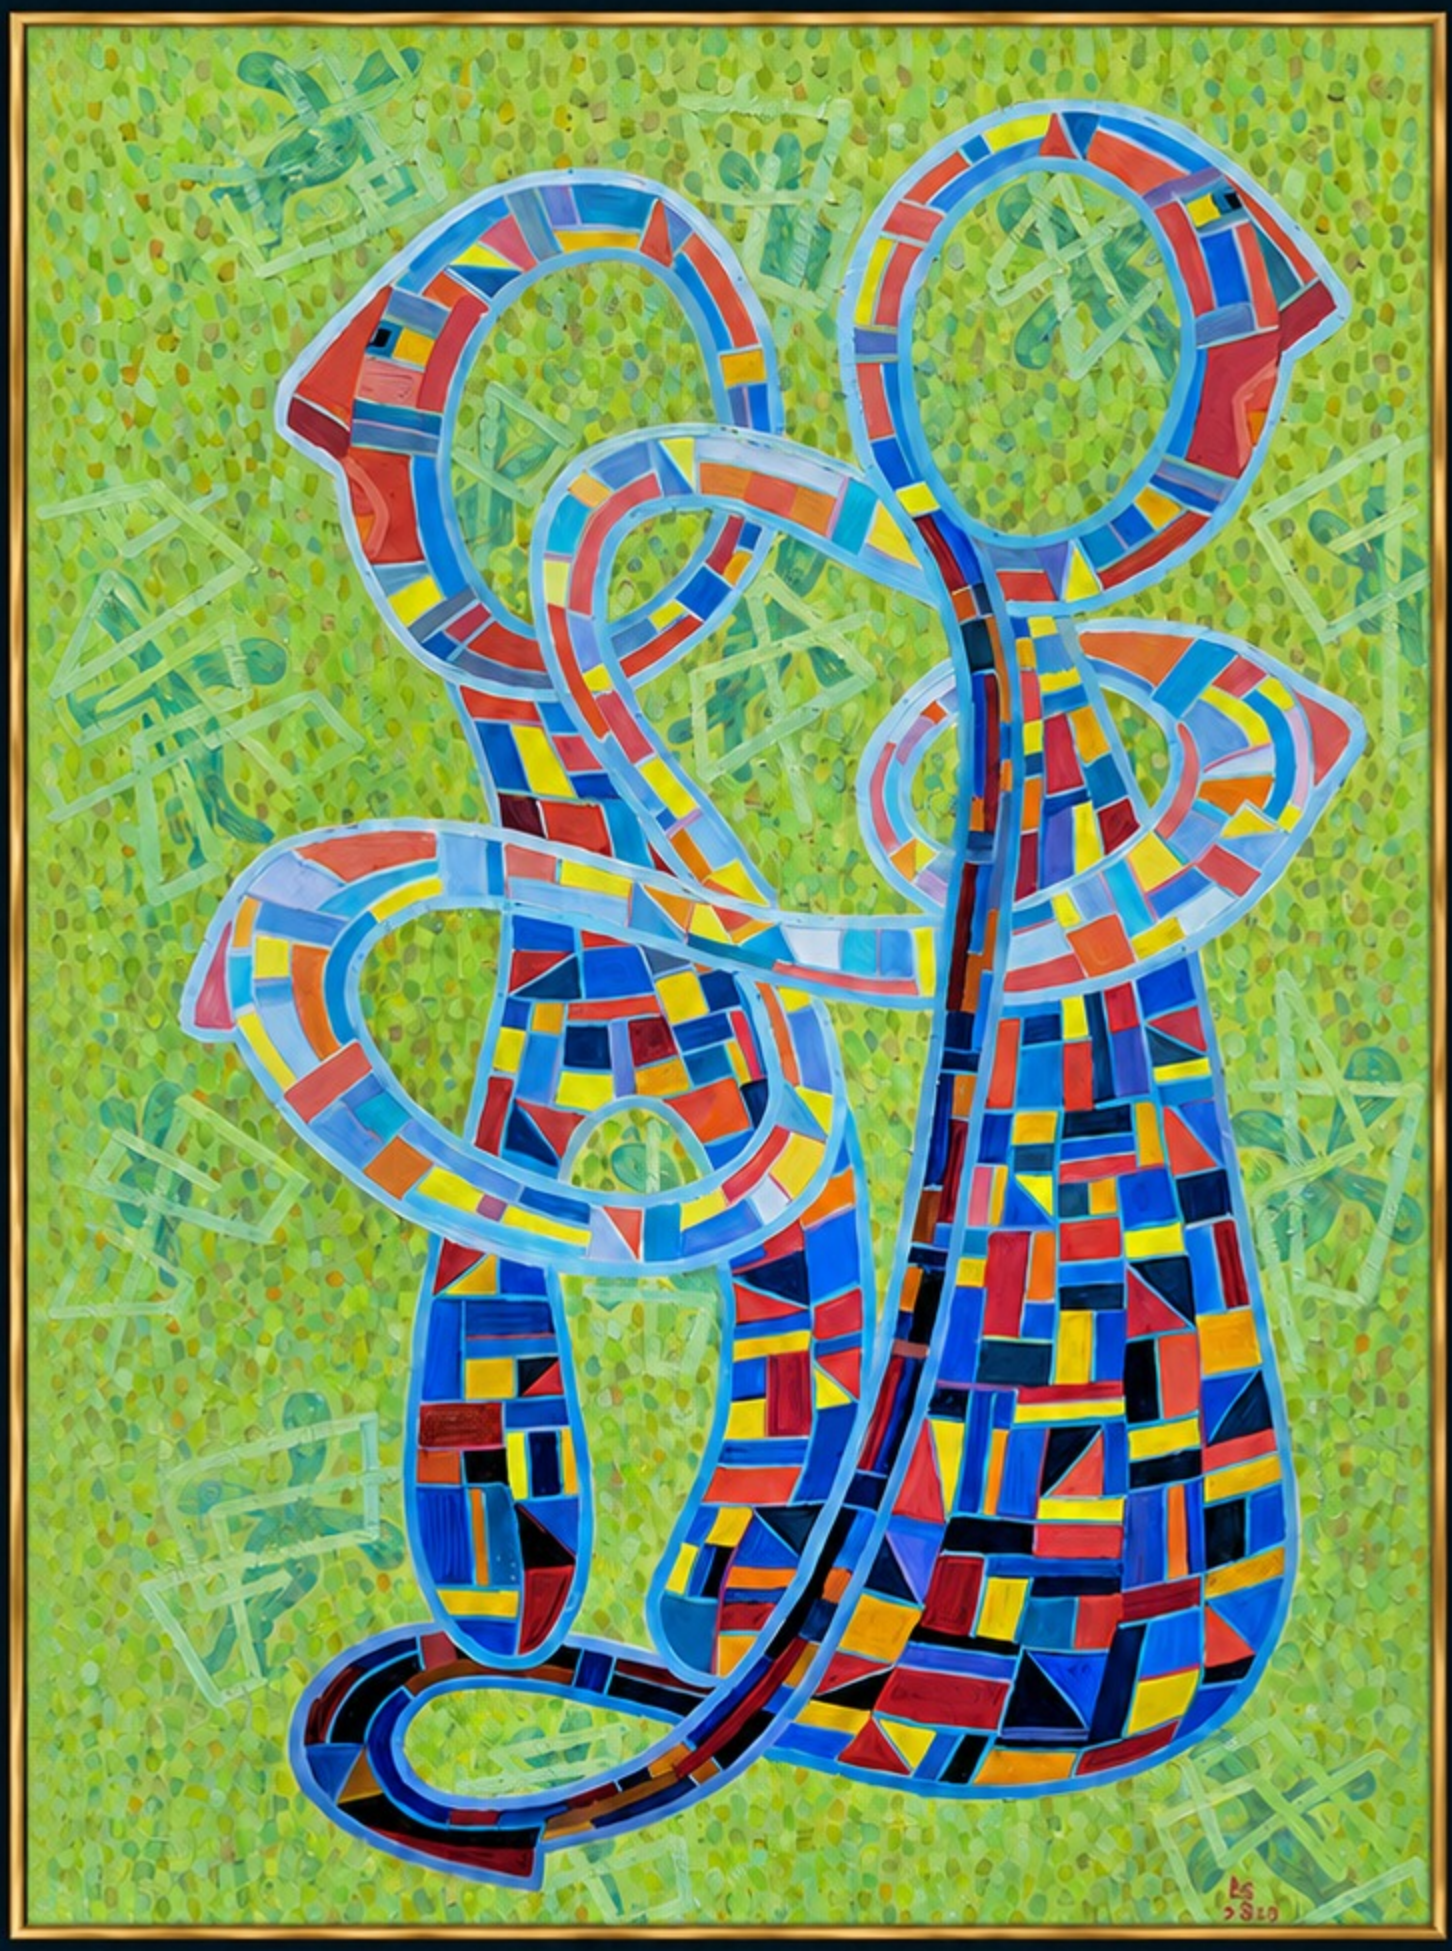

Dandelions in Danger

2020 · Oil on canvas

Stebule reimagines nature through her abstract-figurative language. The luminous blooms rise as fragile emblems of persistence, balancing delicacy, endurance, and quiet inner life.

Collaboration

2023 • Oil on canvas

Stebule transforms interwoven figures into a radiant meditation on unity and higher consciousness. Through rhythmic contour and luminous colour, the painting evokes a spiritual dialogue between individuality, connection, and the unseen intelligence that binds all living forms.

The Keeper of the Lost Dreams

A solitary red figure drifts through a realm of memory and symbol. Stebule turns dream imagery into a quiet meditation on imagination, loss, and the unseen forces that shape inner life.

Moonlight Sonata

Luana Stebule

Luana Stebule's work moves like a breath between worlds—a quiet choreography of colour, memory and spirit.

Rooted in an intuitive language, yet attuned to the universal,
her paintings translate the unseen into luminous form.

Each canvas is a threshold, where movement becomes meditation and light learns to listen.

Internationally recognised, her journey continues as an open dialogue between the visible and the invisible, the earthly and the eternal.
